

pentecost...Come Holy Spirit!

On June 8th, we will celebrate the great feast of PENTECOST... Current church events urge us to pray to the Holy Spirit for His Light and Gifts: wisdom, understanding, strength, knowledge, counsel, piety, and fear of the Lord. We trust that the Holy Spirit will pour them out abundantly on our next Pope.

The Pope is the successor, not of the one or those who preceded him, but of PETER, the one to whom Jesus said: "You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church." Matthew 16:13-20. The Pope who will be elected at the Conclave, starting on May 7, will be above all and firstly, the successor of PETER, chosen by Christ near the Sea of Galilee... The Holy Spirit will set aside the lists of "papables" that are constantly discussed in the media for reasons more political than Catholic!!...

Fortunately, it is the Holy Spirit who is at work in the heart of the Church, we just have to be faithful and docile to Him! We will welcome our new Pope in faith and joy, praying that the Holy Spirit will guide him, and that Mary will accompany him as she accompanied the Apostles and the first steps of the Church.

June 19/22: CORPUS CHRISTI: FEAST OF THE BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST. We give thanks for the real Presence of Christ among us.

MAILBAG: The Eucharist is the Lighthouse, the beacon that guides my life, the Tree of Life, the Sun of Life, my most precious treasure. It is my light in the darkness. Thank you, Peter Vigne." I.B. Burgos. SPAIN

After reading "Peter Vigne's reflections for Today," I realized that Peter Vigne loved the Holy Eucharist and Holy Mass, which he celebrated with great care. I am very grateful to God for the profound message I receive through Blessed Peter Vigne. His words made me appreciate the celebration of Mass, and I particularly appreciate the time of repentance for sins... When we sing the Sanctus... I clearly see the Majesty of God, the Holiness of God...At the moment of consecration, "Peter Vigne's reflections for Today," helped me understand the greatness of God who is present on the altar in the form of bread and wine through the hands of the Priest, Jesus himself descending into my soul. Above all, thanks to Peter Vigne, I understood that the Holy Mass is an encounter between God and man. Let us continue to ask Blessed Father Vigne to pray for us so that we may truly understand the value of the Holy Mass.

In the light of Easter

It is fitting that this issue should mark the passing of POPE FRANCIS and through his writings express our THANKS for his 12 years and 39 days of devoted service to the Church. We will continue to keep alive your messages expressed by your actions and attitudes and of course those we received through your encyclicals:

Lumen Fidei: the light of faith;

Laudato Si': on the care of our common home;

Fratelli Tutti: on fraternity and social friendship;

Dilexit nos: on the human and divine love of the heart of Jesus Christ.

During the Easter Vigil, April 19, 2025 you said:

Our whole life can be a presence of hope.

We want to be that presence for those who lack faith in the Lord, for those who have lost their way, for those who have given up or are weighed down by life; for those who are alone or overwhelmed by their sufferings; for all the poor and oppressed in our world; for the many women who are humiliated and killed; for the unborn and for children who are mistreated; and for the victims of war. To each and all of them, let us bring the hope of Easter!

Let us make room for the light of the Risen Lord! And we will become builders of hope for the world.

And the final sentence of your homily on Easter Sunday

Sisters, brothers, in the wonder of the Easter faith, carrying in our hearts every expectation of peace and liberation, we can say: with You, O Lord, everything is new. With you, everything begins again.

We thank you Pope Francis

Here are some more of his messages for the Easter Season.

The light of Christ shines, as in a mirror, upon the face of Christians; as it spreads, it comes down to us, so that we too can share in that vision and reflect that light to others, in the same way that, in the Easter liturgy, the light of the paschal candle lights countless other candles. Faith is passed on, we might say, by contact, from one person to another, just as one candle is lighted from another.

Lumen Fidei 37

In the presence of the heart of Christ, I once more ask the Lord to have mercy on this suffering world in which he chose to dwell as one of us. May he pour out the treasures of his light and love, so that our world, which presses forward despite wars, socio-economic disparities and uses of technology that threaten our humanity, may regain the most important and necessary thing of all: its heart.

Dilexit nos 31

When we can see God reflected in all that exists, our hearts are moved to praise the Lord for all his creatures and to worship him in union with them. Laudato 87

"If the music of the Gospel ceases to resonate in our very being, we will lose the joy born of compassion, the tender love born of trust, the capacity for reconciliation that has its source in our knowledge that we have been forgiven and sent forth. If the music of the Gospel ceases to sound in our homes, our public squares, our workplaces, our political and financial life, then we will no longer hear the strains that challenge us to defend the dignity of every man and woman". Others drink from other sources. For us the wellspring of human dignity and fraternity is in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Fratelli Tutti 277

I insist, "helping the poor financially must always be a provisional solution in the face of pressing needs. The broader objective should always be to allow them a dignified life through work".

Fratelli Tutti 162

May, month of MARY

During this month, Blessed Peter the Vigne invites us to honour and pray to Our Lady with confidence. "...honour her whom God honours above all other creatures....the Mother of God, the Queen of Heaven, who is most powerful in God's presence, and like her Son, is filled with tenderness for sinners....May she listen to our needs, protect us and grant us all we ask of her". HN 1-214

Let us entrust to her the forthcoming Conclave, the Pope who will be elected and the entire Church.

Mary Mother of the Church, help our faith!
Sow in our faith the joy of the Risen One.
Remind us that those who believe are never alone.
Teach us to see all things with the eyes of Jesus, that he may be light for our path. LF 60
Mary, Virgin and Mother you joined the disciples in awaiting the Spirit so that the evangelizing Church might be born.

Obtain for us now a new ardour born of the resurrection, that we may bring to all the Gospel of life. Pray for us Alleluia. EG288

8 May. Feast of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament. We entrust to her the General Chapter of the Congregation. Valence France: 11-26 July 2025

June, month of the SACRED HEART

In his last Encyclical Pope Francis stated: "Devotion to the heart of Christ slowly passed beyond the walls of the monasteries to enrich the spirituality of saintly teachers, preachers and founders of religious congregations, who then spread it to the farthest reaches of the earth" .DN 112

Peter Vigne, our Founder, showed us how the Blessed Sacrament, the Eucharist, is a precious gift of love from the Heart of Jesus, a human and divine Heart :

"Man does not know where his treasure is...so I must tell you where this substantial gift may be found. The treasure of all men is JESUS in the Holy Eucharist, and what is most precious in him: his Sacred Heart...The heart being the noblest part of man, is it less in the Body of the Saviour?...O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I adore you, therefore, as my treasure, and the source of all goodness. Who would not love the One who loves us with such tenderness?". H-N. A real invitation to remain close to the Heart of Jesus.

A holy picture much loved by Fr. Vigne
